Abstract. The theme of the report of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China is "Never forget your original mind and keep your mission in mind". In this report, General Secretary Xi Jinping pointed out that the Communist Party of China should not forget its original mind and mission, continue to implement the scientific outlook on development, focus on the "four greats" and put forward updated tasks and requirements in the scientific construction of the party. The contents of this report greatly encouraged the whole Party and the whole people to continue to strive for the realization of the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. And for us, the Communist Party of China, is to provide the direction of the struggle to guide and encourage. This article mainly focuses on the theme of "Never forget the original mind", and discusses the content of this report and how to achieve the requirement of "Never forget the original mind, keep the mission in mind” as a member of the Communist Party of China.

1. Introduction

The 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China is a very important conference, because it is in a critical period of building a moderately prosperous society in an all-round way and entering a new stage of socialism with Chinese characteristics. The theme of the whole conference is to keep in mind the original intention, keep in mind the mission, hold high the great banner of socialism with Chinese characteristics, win the victory of building a moderately prosperous society in an all-round way, win the great victory of socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era, and make unremitting efforts to realize the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. This theme has clearly announced to the world what banner our party will hold in the new era, what path it will take, what kind of spiritual state it will take, what kind of historical mission it will dare to take, and what kind of great goals it can achieve.

As a representative of the CPC Central Committee, General Secretary Xi made a report on the 19th national congress, which covers many aspects. It concisely summarizes the view that the road of socialism with Chinese characteristics and the theoretical system of socialism with Chinese characteristics should be taken as the political declaration and action program of the cause of socialism with Chinese characteristics. General Secretary Xi’s report not only uses Deng Xiaoping Theory and the important thought of Three Represents as the guidance, but also on the premise of in-depth implementation of the scientific outlook on development, carefully summarizes the achievements of the work since the 18th National Congress, reflects on the historical process and valuable experience of the Party’s leading and uniting the people of all ethnic groups in building socialism with Chinese characteristics since the reform and opening up, and comprehensively promotes Chinese reform and opening up, socialist modernization and the great new project of promoting the Party’s construction in an all-round way have made new strategic arrangements, which are inspiring and inspiring. We should carefully study and summarize the profound thoughts contained in it, and take it as a guide to really implement it in specific work.

The report of General Secretary Xi also emphasizes social problems and is full of hope for future development. How can we make a good socialist road, deal with problems with the spirit of exploration, deepen reform and change our thinking. In his report to the 19th national congress, comrade Xi Jinping said that the original aspiration and mission of the Chinese Communists is to seek happiness for the Chinese people and rejuvenation for the Chinese nation. Take the socialist road firmly and take a solid step! The most distinctive features in the report are as follows:

2. The Theme is Clear, don’t Forget the Original Intention

For the first time, the report of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China put forward to the whole Party and the whole people the requirement of "keeping the original mind in mind, keeping the mission in mind". Then, the theme of "keeping the original mind in mind" formally became the inexhaustible source, spiritual power and belief pillar for the Communist Party members and all Chinese people to forge ahead and work together in the new era.[1] Dong Qing, a well-known TV host, once defined "first heart" in the column of "readers": our so-called first heart is the heart closest to our original heart among all our wishes, vows and dreams. For the Communist Party of China, the first lofty and great, solemn and long-term goal is to seek happiness for the Chinese people and rejuvenation for the Chinese nation. As for the individual, our first intention is to carry out the Chinese dream and strive for the realization of our ideals. It is simple, pure, clean and clear. "Never forget the original aspiration" not only shows that the Central Committee has clearly grasped the current situation and tasks facing the Party, but also announces our banner, road, guiding ideology and direction of struggle to the Chinese people, which greatly inspires the Party, the army and the people.

3. Adhere to the Scientific Concept of Development

Adhering to the Party’s guiding ideology of scientific outlook on development shows the common aspiration of the whole nation. The first essence of the scientific outlook on development is development. Only with vigorous and powerful momentum of development can we fully display the unique style of the contemporary new China. The core is people-oriented, and the starting point and end point of all the work of the Party and the state are to realize, safeguard and develop the fundamental interests of the overwhelming majority of the people. Under the leadership of General Secretary Xi, our Party effectively gives play to the people’s initiative spirit, guarantees the fundamental rights and interests of the overwhelming majority of the people, promotes the all-round development of people, and takes the road of common prosperity together. The basic requirement is to coordinate sustainability in an all-round way and make every effort to promote coordination in all aspects of modernization. The basic method is to make overall arrangements, point out our thoughts and strategies to further promote the reform and development of Chinese economic system, make clear that the scientific development concept is the basic guiding ideology to guide the economic society, mark that the understanding of the Communist Party of China on the laws of socialist construction, social development and governance of the Communist Party has reached a new height, and mark the Marxism It marks that the combination of Marxism and new Chinese national conditions has reached a new height and stage.

4. Focus on the Four Greatness and Dare to Take on the Historical Mission

The report of the 19th National Congress clearly pointed out that great struggle, great project, great cause and great dream should be taken care of. This[2] "four greatness" provides our party with a clear direction in formulating the general strategy of governing the country and managing the government in the new era, helps our party to build a general framework for the overall work of the general manager, is also the general coordinate of the cause with Chinese characteristics, and is also the general grasp of all the work of the party. In essence, our Chinese dream is to realize the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Since the founding of the people’s Republic of China, our Party has led us to create many Chinese miracles. On the road of great rejuvenation, we have moved forward step by step. Today, we are closer to the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation than ever before, and we have more confidence and ability to realize our great dreams. And in order to realize this great dream, we have to fight through great struggle. The essence of the great struggle is the brilliant process that our party leads the people of all ethnic groups to overcome many difficulties in order to realize the great Chinese dream. Although China now has good conditions for development, and there is no power to prevent the Chinese nation from shining its brilliance on the international stage, the "great struggle" is still indispensable for us at this stage.

To realize the great dream, we must build a great project.[3] The great project is the construction of the Party. It is an important way to keep our party alive forever. It is a glorious and arduous important task. It is the top priority and needs our long-term adherence. The key to the realization of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation lies in the construction of the Party. The requirements of the times and the practice of history all fully illustrate the importance and necessity of the overall strict governance of the party.

In order to realize the great dream, we must continue to advance the great cause. Great cause refers to the great cause of socialism with Chinese characteristics. The 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China clearly pointed out that to promote the great cause, we must adhere to the "four self-confidence", namely road self-confidence, theoretical self-confidence, institutional self-confidence and cultural self-confidence. Throughout the ages, self-confidence has played an extremely important role in the rise of the nation, the prosperity of the country or personal cultivation. Every powerful country and nation in the world cannot do without self-confidence and identity. The 19th national congress pointed out that as long as the "five in one" and "four self-confidence" can be closely linked, the Chinese nation will not have a dream that cannot be realized. "Great struggle" points out the way of struggle for the Chinese people, great project arranges "who will do it", "great cause" points out the specific path of struggle, and "great thought" shows us our ultimate goal. "Four greatness" is a unified whole, which is closely related to each other. We cannot simply separate the "four greats". Only when we understand and implement them, can we create more brilliant achievements.

5. Scientific Construction of the Party

What’s more important is that we have put forward new tasks and requirements in the scientific construction of the Party, which not only emphasizes the sense of urgency and responsibility in strengthening the construction of governance ability and advancement, purity, and the modernization of governance ability and governance system, but also further points out the great new project of promoting the construction of the party under the new historical conditions Direction. Several "new" points in General Secretary Xi’s report are reflected in that the first "new" is the new era, and we need to create a new era of socialism with Chinese characteristics. The second "new" is the new history. Socialism with Chinese characteristics is at a new stage of development. We are all at a new starting point in history to strive to achieve prosperity and strength. The third "new" is the new theory. In the report of the 19th national congress, General Secretary Xi proposed the concept of "socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era", which is very exciting. The fourth "new" is the general plan. In his report to the 19th national congress, General Secretary Xi pointed out clearly from 14 aspects what we should do, how to do it and how to do it better in the future.

6. Requirements of the 19th National Congress for Party Members

The 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China is a very important meeting held during the critical period of building a moderately prosperous society in an all-round way, deepening reform and opening up, and accelerating the transformation of economic development mode. In such an environment, to promote the development of economic and social work, to determine the work of deepening social development, is to guide and encourage each of our Party members in the direction of struggle. Under the new historical conditions, we should thoroughly implement the instructions and requirements of General Secretary Xi Jinping at the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, constantly temper ourselves, improve our self-cultivation, and always adhere to the belief of never forgetting the original intention and sticking to our original intention, so as to be absolutely loyal to the Party. We should always keep our hearts and minds to the Party, the "red gene" of the Communists, the people, the political nature of Chinese Communists, and the better service for the people.

Never forget why you started, and your mission can be accomplished. The original intention and mission of the Communist Party of China is to strive to achieve the happiness of the masses of the people and the well-being of the Chinese nation. This mission and original intention has always been a force that inspires the continuous progress of the Chinese Communists. Therefore, we must always be connected with the people, always take the people’s pursuit of a better life as our goal, and strive to achieve the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation with a never give up, unremitting spirit and a courageous attitude.

As Party members, we are deeply inspired and deeply affected in the face of this grand meeting of the century. Only in our own work, we should be strict with ourselves, always remember to strive for excellence, strive for the top, actively think and reflect on ourselves, constantly realize the innovation of working methods, and constantly overcome the difficulties in our work. We should also work hard, in the spirit of serving the people, the spirit of service into the people to contribute to their own strength. As Party members, we should always adhere to the concept of lifelong learning, deeply implement the spirit of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, truly achieve learning in work, in books and in practice, regard learning as a living habit and keep it. Through learning, we should constantly improve our cognitive ability and scope, and constantly improve our comprehensive ability and face various situations The ability to adapt to the circumstances.
